The 'Lund' Principle

Should not the churches act together in all matters except those in which deep differences of conviction compel them to act separately?

From the General Secretary

Christmas is fast approaching and I hope you, like I am, are looking forward to this season of celebration for the birth of Christ. Many are no doubt looking forward with anticipation to inspirational worship, gathering around the table with family and friends to share some of the best food and drink in the world, and to giving and receiving of gifts. Christmas can indeed be a great time of year for many of us.

Unfortunately there are many people in our world who will be lucky if they get one square meal on Christmas Day, much less participate in a feast. There are also many millions of refugees who will not be celebrating with family and friends, forced as they are to be in camps far from home. There are others who will not be feeling safe and secure because of war and violence in their homelands.

As Churches acting together with our partner organizations in the Pacific, Asia, Africa and the Middle East, we can do something to improve the situations for many of these people. As you come to consider the giving and receiving of gifts this year I urge you to support the Christmas Bowl with generosity.

May you be blessed by Christ's love this Christmas and be enabled to bless others.

Rev'd Tim Matton-Johnson

Christmas Bowl Visitor Colleen Hodge

will be in Tasmania from 22—27 November. For details of her program and where you can meet her see page 2.

If you would like to invite Colleen to your congregation/group during that time, please advise the TCC office NOW.

A Christmas Bowl Prayer

"Lord, when I am hungry, give me someone to feed; when I am thirsty, give me someone whose thirst I may assuage. And when I am cold, someone to clothe.

"When I am sad, give me someone to cheer, when my burden is heavy, give me also those of others; and when I need love, may others ask for mine.

"May your will be my food; your grace my strength and your love my rest.

"May my whole life be a gift perpetually offered to you, O God, until the day when you are pleased to receive it back again."

CHRISTMAS BOWL VISITOR

Colleen Hodge

We look forward to welcoming Colleen Hodge (pictured) as our Christmas Bowl visitor this year. Colleen is the Manager of the Education and Communications Programs of Christian World Service/National Council of Churches in Australia. As well as her day to day work promoting Christian World Service programs, she has visited a number of Christmas Bowl overseas projects and has therefore had the opportunity to see at first hand how funds raised through Christmas Bowl are making a difference in the world.

Colleen says she has been involved in ecumenical activities all her life—certainly with Christmas Bowl as a child.

Colleen first worked with the Action for World Development program in the 1970s, was an Anglican representative on the former Australian Council of Churches and a member of the Executive Committee in the 1980s, and was involved with the New South Wales Ecumenical Council's Development Education and Refugee Support Committees in the 1990s.

After working at the University of New South Wales for 13 years, and the Anglican Board of Mission Australia for 12 years, she accepted the invitation to her present position with the National Council of Churches in Australia in 2002 and has enjoyed the challenges of the last five years.

Colleen has had close contact with ecumenical partners in the Middle East, Africa, Asia, the Pacific and with Indigenous people in Australia. She values the generous and gracious friendships which have been offered to her by many colleagues.

A Schools Sunday Resource Pack has been prepared. The pack includes service outlines, a newsletter insert, prayer suggestions, a puppet play, a drama and ways to connect with your local school. The material has been prepared to help you celebrate Schools Sunday so feel free to use it in any way that would assist you.

The Resource Pack is available:

- email schools\_sunday@optusnet.com.au
- www.supakids.org.au/schools\_sunday
- phone Peter and Kathryn 6265 5809

We encourage you to register your involvement in Schools Sunday celebrations on the above website, e-mail address or phone number.
